Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for your support in promoting the Sustainable Micro Internship programme this year. I am writing to confirm that the U21 Secretariat has reached their limit of how many applications they can accept from University of Delhi and have closed applications with immediate effect.

They have requested to suspend any further promotion of the programme at the university.

Kindly do the needful.

With regards,

O/o International Relations

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are contacting you as the University of Delhi is a member of Universitas 21, a network of Higher Education Institutions. This is to let you know that the U21 is offering an online program - U21 Micro-internships to our students in December 2024, January 2025 or February 2025. Applications are now open and the last date for submitting the application is November 15, 2024.

Information about the programme

The U21 Sustainable Micro-internships programme allows students to work with fellow students from across the globe, sharing knowledge and expertise whilst immersing themselves in a commercial organisation. The students will be asked to provide a solution to a real-life SDG related challenge, and present to senior stakeholders within the organization at the end of the programme.

There is no cost to the University of Delhi or the student. Any registered student of Delhi University is eligible.

Attached is an Announcement for the U21 Micro Internship Applications which can be shared with the students directly and has a link to apply online. Kindly circulate it widely with your students.

With regards,
International Relations Office
