

NOTICE

It has come to the notice of the College administration that certain students have been involved in creating false College Identity Cards. It is suspected that the purpose behind this act was to facilitate unauthorized entry of outsiders / individuals into the College premises using these forged Identity Cards.

The College administration strongly warns all the students of this College that creating, possessing or using fake College Identity Cards is illegal and a serious violation of college rules.

Any student, if found involved in such activities, will face severe consequences, including the following: -

1. Filing of an FIR with the police authorities.
2. Legal action as per applicable laws.
3. Disciplinary action by the College, which may include suspension or expulsion and heavy penalty.

The students are advised to refrain from engaging in such unlawful acts and to cooperate with the College administration in maintaining the safe environment and security of the College.
