Dear Sanjay :

As you are aware, Government of India (GoI) through All India Radio (AIR) is broadcasting an interactive program titled "Mann ki Baat" (i.e. words from the heart) hosted by Hon'ble Prime Minister focusing various topics of national importance.

2. The program started airing in 2014 received positive reviews and garnered wide listeners across the country and it has completed 99 episodes till date. In this direction, it has been proposed by GoI to organize the 100th episode of this programme in a grand and befitting manner at various Centrally Protected Monuments under ASI. (list enclosed)

3. To attract participation of audience particularly youth, it is proposed to bring them to the above locations in large numbers. The major components of the above program shall be in the form of projection mapping highlighting the importance of the monument as well excerpts from previous episodes. Further, a visit to the monument is also planned for participants.

4. In this direction, I would like to request you to give suitable directions to officers concerned to ensure participation of Central Universities, Kendriya Vidyalaya and other major academic institutions under your ministry for the above program enabling them to get adequate exposure on various issues of national importance and make the program a grand success.

Encl: As above

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Govind Mohan
