Greetings,

Institute for Constitution and Parliamentary Studies is presenting an Online Workshop on Cybersecurity and Data Protection, specifically tailored to empower youth with the knowledge and skills to navigate the digital world securely. In an age where digital transformation and online connectivity have become an integral part of our lives, ensuring the cybersecurity and data protection of our youth has never been more critical.

With this in mind, we are excited to extend a special invitation to you and your fellow students to participate in our upcoming Online Workshop on Cybersecurity and Data Protection. The youth of today represent both the future and the most vulnerable demographic when it comes to cybersecurity threats. As young individuals increasingly engage in online activities, understanding the importance of cybersecurity and data protection is paramount.

The workshop "Cybersecurity and Data Protection: Empowering Youth for a Secure Digital Future", is scheduled to be conducted on November 8th, 2023 from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. The link to attend the workshop has been provided below.

Please forward the list of participants along with their Name, Email, Course and Mobile Number.
